S. S. MONGOLIA HAS HEAVY MAIL

With 358 bags of mail, most of which should have been brought by the S. S. Sierra 30 hours before the arrival of the Pacific Mail liner, the S. S. Mongolia docked at the Backfield wharf at 2 o'clock this afternoon from San Francisco. She brought about 60 cabin passengers for Honolulu, including a number of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine returning home from the Los Angeles doings.

Five or six tons of freight is the limit for this port, while over 5,000 tons of cargo is bound through. The Mongolia sails at 10 o'clock in the morning for Yokohama, Kobe, Shanghai and Hongkong.

The Mongolia was to have gone into dry dock while in San Francisco, but the presence in the dock of her sister ship, the Manchuria, made it impossible. The Mongolia, however, is in good condition, and according to representatives of the Pacific Mail Company is fit for more than one voyage across the Pacific and back before docking.

Yesterday the Mongolia sighted the

NO DATE SET FOR S. S. MAUNA KEA

FRISCO STRIKES HOLD NEW INTER-ISLAND BOAT AND P. M. S. S. MANCHURIA.

J. A. Kennedy, president of the I. S. N. Co., who returned from the mainland in the S. S. Sierra yesterday morning, reports work on the Inter-Island Company's new boat, the Mauna Kea, very much delayed by the strikes in San Francisco and it is uncertain when the vessel will be delivered in these waters. No work has been done on the Mauna Kea since May 1. The same experience is being suffered by the P. M. S. S. Manchuria.

HARBOR DECORATIONS.
There are but few vessels in the harbor today and the weather is not the best for decorations, but the national colors are to be seen from most of the shipping and ashore the flags of the naval station and customs house, immigration station and quarantine are in evidence.
